

A Year-long Exploration into:
What Does it Mean to be Multiracial
in a Monoracial World?

Faculty Panel: Multiracialism Informing Academic Work

October 26, 4-6pm, Hatcher Library Gallery

Panelists:

[Panelist 1], Prof. of History and Afroamerican & African Studies, co-director of the Program in Race, Law & History. Dr. []’s scholarly interests include the history of race, citizenship, slavery, and the rights of women in the United States and the Atlantic world.

[Panelist 2], Thurnau Prof. of Art and Design. Professor []’s photographs and writing examine the lives and experiences of multiracial people around the world. His recent exhibit and publication, So Called, drew from his travels around the world photographing multiracial people [Panelist 3], Director, Graduate Student Success, Rackham Graduate School, Lecturer, Oakland University. Dr. []’s research examines the college experience for multiracial students.

Watch for upcoming films and programs at the Library’s website! <http://www.lib.umich.edu/events> or contact Karen Downing: kdown@umich.edu