

Traveling Stanzas: Immigrant Voices

Exhibit—Traveling Stanzas: Immigrant Voices

Presented by The Friends of Lakewood Public Library and The Wick Poetry Center at Kent State University

This interactive exhibit uses engaging digital tools and creative experiences to facilitate cross-cultural, intergenerational conversations through poetry and design—offering everyone opportunities to share their voice. These public displays unite communities around important topics and facilitate civic dialogues through the medium of poetry. The exhibit at the Library will feature the immigrant experience as it is expressed in our community.
